###

The Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey is the largest business organization in Southern New Jersey. It is the first and only Chamber of Commerce in the country to have earned ISO 9001:2008 certification. The mission of the Chamber is: to provide members with opportunities to meet and do business; resources to enhance members' position in the marketplace; and a collective voice on public policy impacting operations and profitability.

About The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation

The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity founded in 2010 with a mission to effectuate positive change in the lives of youth, particularly those in underserved communities, by providing resources, innovative opportunities, and experiences that will help them succeed in life and become contributing members of their communities.

The Foundation's work in New Jersey, Louisiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, is guided by the principles of Project REWARDS: Reinforcing Education With Activities, Recreation, & Developmental Supports.

Jenkins, a native New Jerseyan, will host his FREE, 5th Annual Next Level Youth Football Camp for 425 area youth on June 24 & 25, at Piscataway High School, Piscataway, NJ. Jenkins, along with 10 other prominent NFL players, will provide instruction and motivational lessons with the support of local area coaches and community partners.
