

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Gwendolyn Jenkins
(732) 384-3490

THE MALCOLM JENKINS FOUNDATION CELEBRATES ITS FIFTH ANNIVERSARY BY LAUNCHING FIRST QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

Contest to Name Newsletter Offers Prize for Winning Newsletter Name Entry

PHILADELPHIA, PA, – April 1, 2015 – The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation (TMJF) kicked off activities to celebrate its fifth anniversary with the launch of its quarterly newsletter that touts the innovative and impactful programs offered by TMJF that help to develop youth, build families and strengthen communities on March 27, 2015. As part of the launch, the Foundation is holding a contest to receive entries to give the newsletter a name. Entries are due by April 13.

TMJF supporters are encouraged to enter the "Name the Newsletter" Contest. The individual who submits the winning entry will receive a great and very special prize. To fully participate, entrants must ENTER a name for the newsletter; LIKE The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation Face Book page and SHARE the post with friends, all by April 13th

June 22, 2010 is the date that The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation was established to effectuate positive change in the lives of youth, particularly in under-served communities by providing resources, innovative opportunities and experiences to help them succeed in life and become contributing members of the community. The Foundation is committed to youth development initiatives and programs that emphasize character development, mentorship, leadership, education, life skills, health and recreation. Over the years, the goal of the Foundation has been expanded to build families and strengthen communities. The Foundation provides programs in areas around the country that have supported Malcolm personally and professionally – New Jersey where he is from; Columbus, Ohio where he attend The Ohio State University;

New Orleans where he played professional football with the New Orleans Saints; and Philadelphia, Pa where he plays Safety for the Philadelphia Eagles.

The newsletter is a very informative publication that highlights its signature programs and activities including TMJF's FREE Next Level Youth Football Camp for boys and girls ages 7-17; Get Ready Fest™, a festive community event held in Philadelphia and Columbus, Ohio that together provides 1600 families with food, essential personal items; clothing and health and wellness and education and job resources to youth; adults, senior and veterans; youth sports safety initiative; programs to support seriously ill youth and its first Philadelphia-based fundraiser, Blitz, Bowties & Bourbon. To view the newsletter please visit <http://eepurl.com/bgOBEb>

“Since establishing the Foundation, we have so much to be proud of and are so thankful for the support we receive from our committed funders, donors and volunteers who collaborate with us to build and support our village,” said Malcolm Jenkins, TMJF Founder and Chairman. “Every day The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation is winning for youth and we sincerely appreciate all who have joined with us on our exciting journey,” he added.

For more information about The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation, please visit themalcolmjenkinsfoundation.org

--END--